

6516206373.txt

Any changes or the loss of the excellent programming on my xm radio will indeed cause me a lot of greif. I travel and rely heavilly on the access that I have to weather and traffic info in cities through which I travel. I do not wish this to be changed as I have never had better access to the information that has made my travels safer than that which xm radio has provided. Don't stop a great thing.